Remarks - the Document Numbering

In order to make the subsequent documents simple and clear, and to reduce the repeated postage and paper of the documents, the JPE Government urges Your Excellency's permission to use the case number GA-13-031 given by the United Nations as the key index. The encoding rules are as follows:

The United Nations GA-13-031 is the key index; the primary text starts with P, the annex starts with A, and its Arabic numerals are incremented in order;

For example, as this document is the second primary text issued by the JPE Government in the UN GA-13-031 case, the document code is GA-13-031-P2;

For annexes to this document, the annex code is incremented from the two annexes of the previous primary text "Observing and Respecting the Geneva Conventions of 1949" and its serial number is 3, 4, ..., then the numbering of the Annex of "JAPAN EMPIRE: DECLARATION RECOGNIZING AS COMPULSORY THE JURISDICTION OF THE INTERNATIONAL COURT OF JUSTICE" is GA-13-031-A3.

If subsequent documents reference annexes, directly reference the annex number to reduce document duplication, postage, and papers.

If the United Nations gives the JPE Government a new case number in subsequent documents, JPE Government would use the new UN case number as the key index and its annexes numbering are according to this model.
